Chesbro Taken From Slab After Allowing Six Runs.

YOUNG WINS OWN GAME

Knocked Long Fly to Anderson That Brought in Run.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 8.—All that remains for the Boston champions to again win the championship of the American League is to capture one game of the double-header to be played at New York on Monday, for this afternoon before the largest crowd-28,040 persons-that ever attended a game in this city, Boston won a double-header from the New York Invaders.

In the first game they sent that greatest of all spit-ball artists and the almost invincible pitcher, Jack Chesbro, to the stable, after half a dozen runs were made on as many hits. The game was farcical after he received his trouncing, as Clarkson, who was substituted, was given a similar treatment, the game resulting 13 to 2.

Second Game Close.

The second game was much different, as far as the pitchers went, for both Powell and Young were in grand form. The latter won the game by sending a fly to Anderson, who made a poor throw to head off a runner at third, and allowed the only tally to cross the plate.

The local team outplayed their great rivals at the bat and in the field, as they were able to connect freely with Chesbro's and Clarkson's delivery to the Chesbro's and Chesbro's went into the crowd, netting two bases, and would have under ordinary circumstances been outs. The infield of the locals showed its best form by handling minutes. everything that came its way with grace and perfect skill. Invaders' Infield Weak.

liant stops by Ferris in the first game and Collins in the second game were really wonderful, proving that as players neither can be excelled in his position. Each, with Parent, figured strengly in the batting column in the irst game by getting three hits apiece.

strongly in the batting column in the first game by getting three hits apiece. Anderson was New York's best performer with the stick.

Stacked against Chesbro was Bill Dineen, and he was in great form, despite the fact that he was free with his passes, but a fair idea as to his ability can be had from the fact that he caused the great batter Dougherty to hit nothing but the atmosphere three different times.

Ferris hit over second base. Williams made a pretty stop, but could not get the ball to first in time to head off the runner. Criger sacrificed, Powell to Ganzel, but on Cy Young's fly to Anderson the latter threw wide to third base in his effort to catch Ferris, who had left second base when the ball was caught. The ball went into the crowd, and Hobe scored.

With one out Cassidy It tripled, Donovan was hit, and Clarke was purposely passed up, filling the bases. Kittredge was sent in to bat for Jacobsen, and popped up a short fit to Seybold. The coachers foolishly told Cassidy to try for home on the play, and he was caught at the plate.

In the next inning the Athletics won. With two out Lave Cross tripled to left center. Seybold walked. Hill threw Murphy's grounder low to first and Cross tallied. Murphy tried a fake steal and drew a throw, Seybold scoring.

"SYNDICATED" BALL ON DETROIT FIELD

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 8.-The closing DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 8.—The closing games of the year were almost farcical, as there seemed to be a species of syndicated ball between Bradley, at the third station for Cleveland, and Mullen, at the slab for Detroit. Bradley, with six times at bat in the two games, made a total of six hits, and one of these hits was so punky that the audience even jeered at Mullen's fielding of the ball. Every time Mullen came to bat he bunted the ball down the third base line. Bradley played twenty feet back of the base and took his time to recover before making the throw. Scores:
